4. And they did!
5. Brenda Lockhart, Janie Poe and Linda Divis wait for the Homecoming parade to begin.

1. Billy Fahr keeps an eye on the Homecoming game.
2. Receiving alumni awards from Queen Janet are (left to right) Dr. Bob Kirkwood, Dr. R. T. Kirkwood, Clara "Turk" Waggoner, Bett Moore, and Dr. Larry Herron.
3. Dancers enjoy Homecoming music.

Homecoming Has More Action

Janet Longnecker
'75-'76
Homecoming Queen

The 1975 Homecoming activities stretched over the whole week. Tie 'em up and sock it to 'em day and 50's day were dress themes for the students and faculty to utilize. More evening activities occurred, including a pizza bust and a powder puff football game. On Friday night, October 10, the Indians downed Salem 26-20. Queen Janet Longnecker with her court Kathy Bennett, Brenda Cochran and Kathy Rigg, Senior candidates; Janet Bowman, Junior attendant; Tina Davis, Sophomore attendant; and Sally Harness, Freshman attendant reigned over the Saturday night Homecoming dance.

1. Queen Janet accepts her flowers as Brenda Cochran watches.
2. Vic Underwood and Terry Gher make their after game plans.

Janet Longnecker poses with her Homecoming court.

Students Party Part Time

1. Students seem to enjoy the first Sweetheart dance.
2. Mike Sharp and Debbie Vowels celebrate Valentine's Day.

3. "This is how you do the hustle," explains Candy Shroyer to escort Robert Fielden.
4. Hearts beat to the sound of Daddy Wolf.

This year the F.H.A. held the first Sweetheart dance on February 14 in place of the annual Twerp dance. Daddy Wolf provided the music while Colour My World was chosen as the theme. Even though the attendance was not as good as expected, the F.H.A. members hope it will be an annual event for Valentine's Day at Lawrenceville High School.

Students Work Part Time

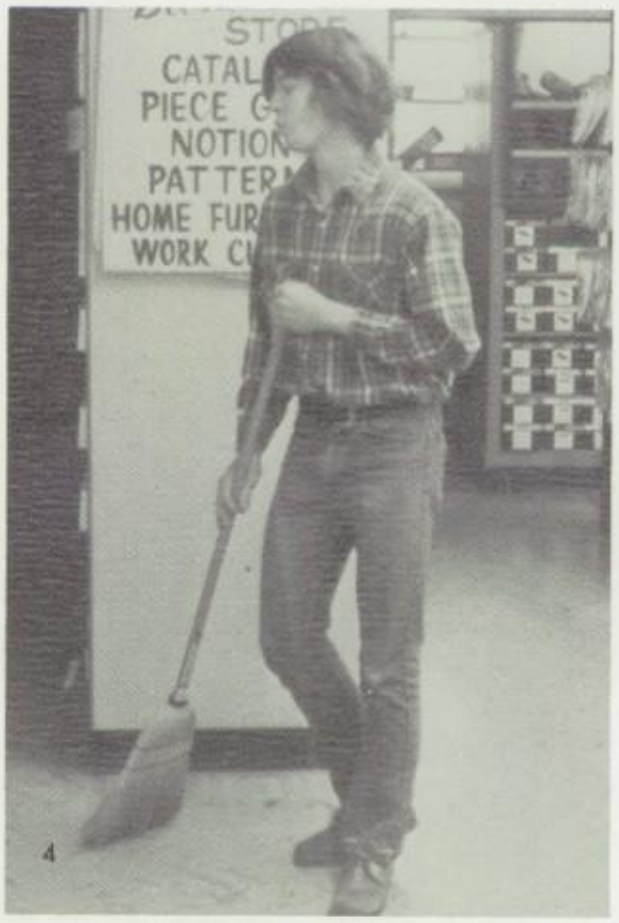
1. Smiling Karlene Caudell receives the money while David Brink sacks the groceries.
2. Jim Higgs lets the sun shine in at Hedde Pharmacy.



3. Mark Flanders puts a quart of oil in a "hot" Ford.
4. Whistling while he works, Mark Harrod cleans up at Penneys.
5. Checking a receipt, Bonnie Hornback finds her mistake.
6. "Are you SURE you want a prune milkshake, Mr. Pulleyblank?" asks Peggy Helman.

1. Jim Jones defends himself during P.E. class.
2. "Hang in there baby, Friday's coming."
3. Students take it easy after another day at the grind.
4. This L.H.S. student finds crowded halls no problem after 3:20.
5. Dave Hesher and Jay Shidler bring home the third place trophy.
6. Coach Ron Felling praises his team during the welcome home ceremony.

Staff Celebrates Birthday

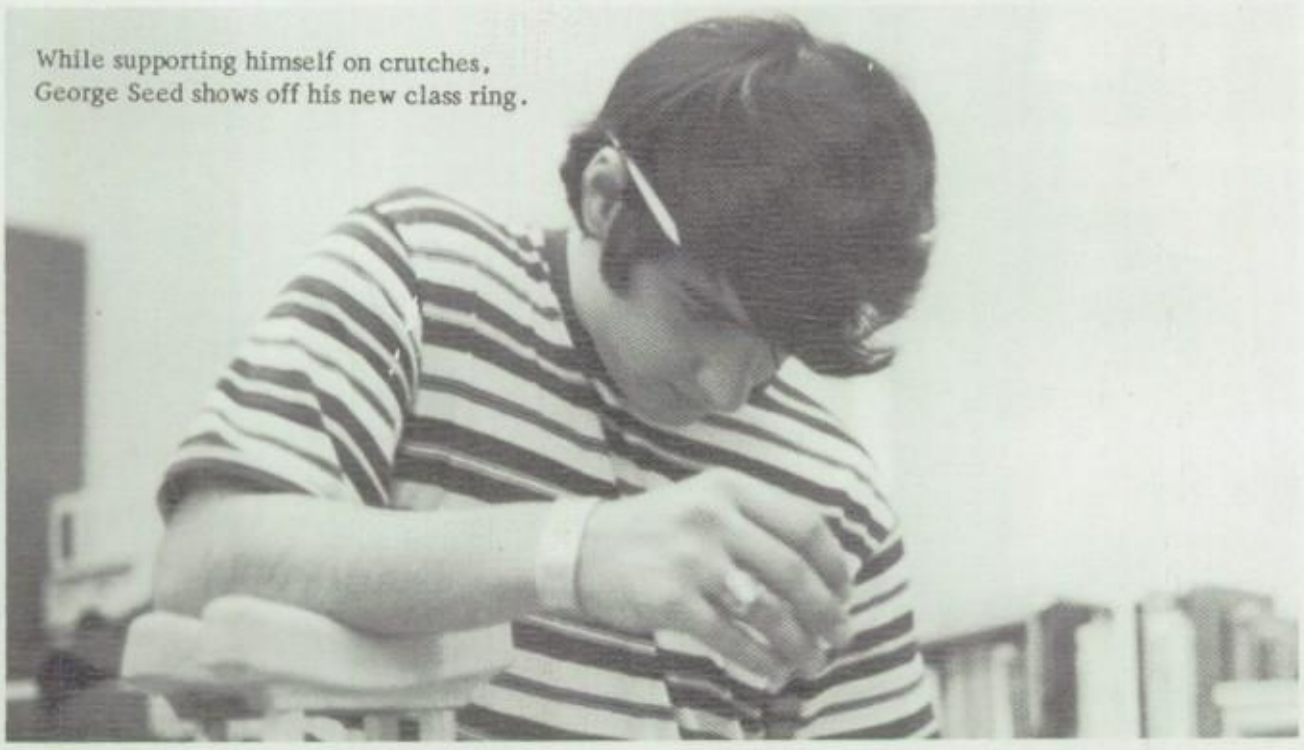
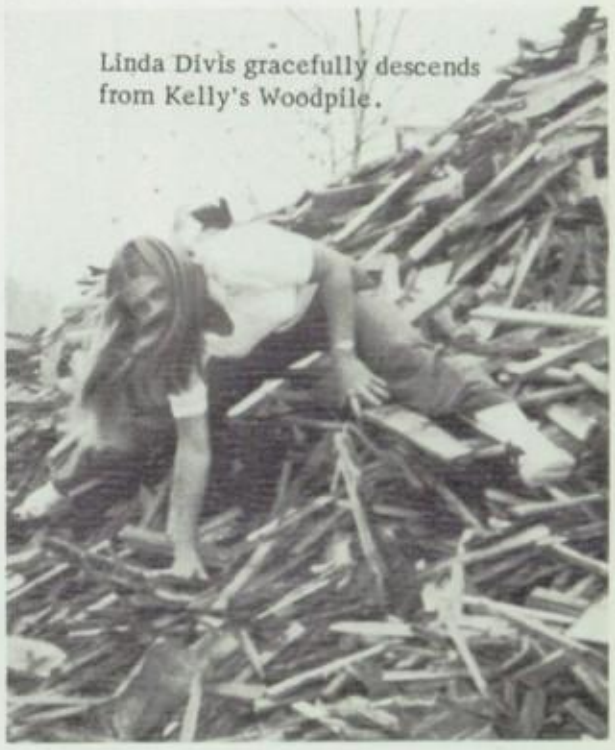
"You can't put that caption on a teacher's picture!" exclaims Patty Steed.

While Becky Claunch lays out a page, Reta Newman and Pam Buckner hold a friendly discussion.



While supporting himself on crutches, George Seed shows off his new class ring.



Linda Divis gracefully descends from Kelly's Woodpile.

Problems the Lawrencean Staff must cope with each year are expenses, theme, proper pictures and plenty of them, expenses, creating a unique book, expenses, and deadlines. Some of these problems were easily solved by the 1975-76 yearbook Staff. Others were not.

The Bicentennial year made the choice of theme simple. In March the staff treated students and faculty to a piece of the bicentennial birthday cake used for the theme page picture.

The problem of raising the $5000 needed for publication costs was a year long task for the staff. They sold advertising space, candy bars, and subscriptions to the yearbook, even though not as many students ordered in advance as in the past.

New Librarian Sponsors Club

1. Library Club members and books go together.
2. Jeanne Kull and Cindy Seed use study hall time to browse at the book fair.
3. Kathy Rigg listens as another member suggests a way to spend club funds.
4. Library Club members Lisa Hall and Donna Stoltz help students select reading material.
5. "I really don't think that kind of book would be appropriate," Miss Franklin giggles.

The Library Club is made up of students who are interested in the field of Library Science or just enjoy reading and helping Miss Franklin with library chores. The club sponsored a Book Fair so students would have a chance to purchase best sellers at bargin prices. Miss Phyllis Franklin served as sponsor and officers were Janis Foss, President; Kim Ralston, Vice-President; and Teresa Hornback, Secretary.

Toma Talk Gets New Advisor

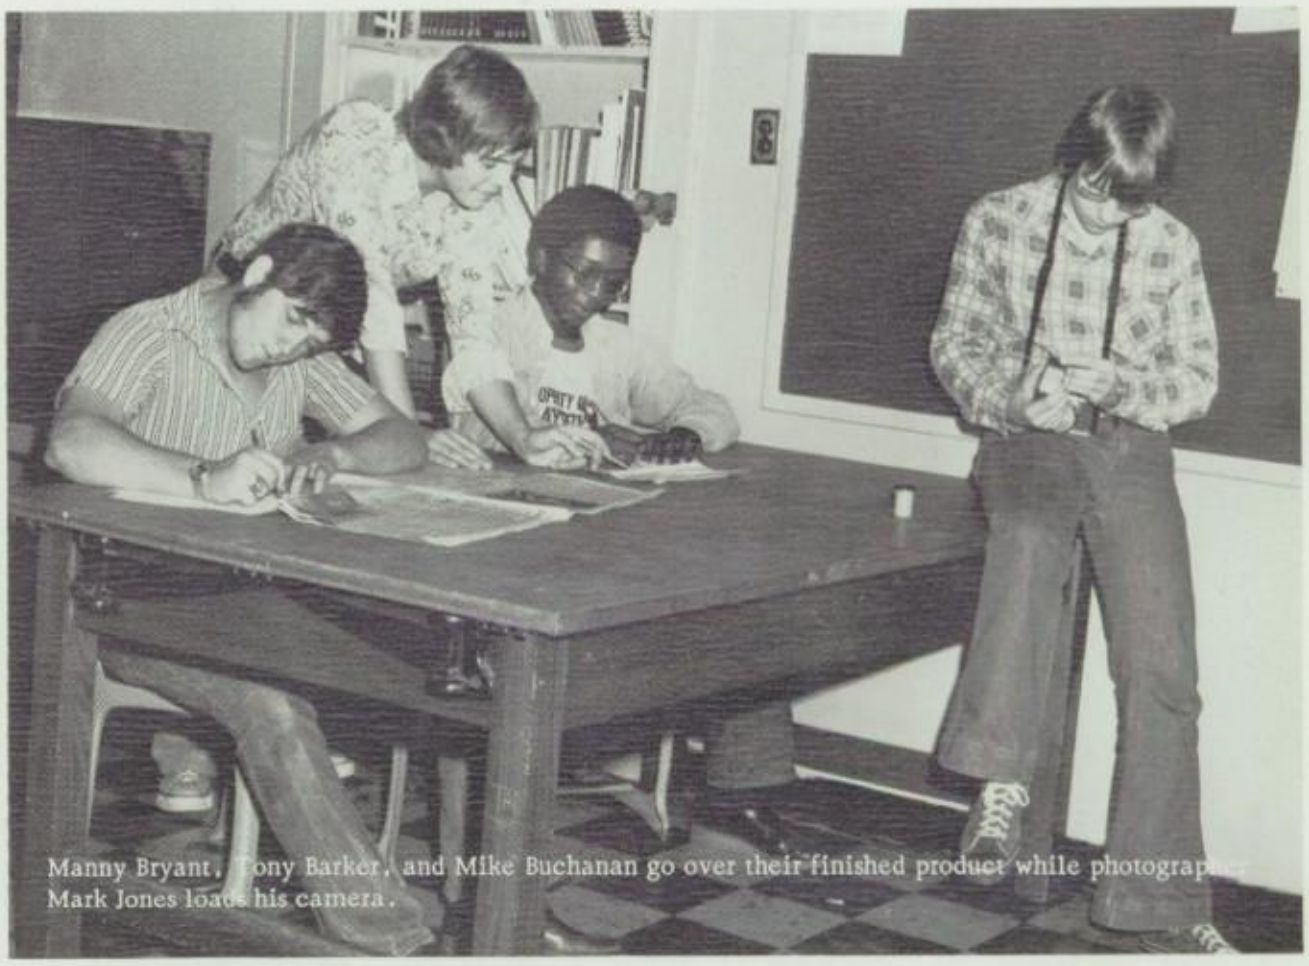
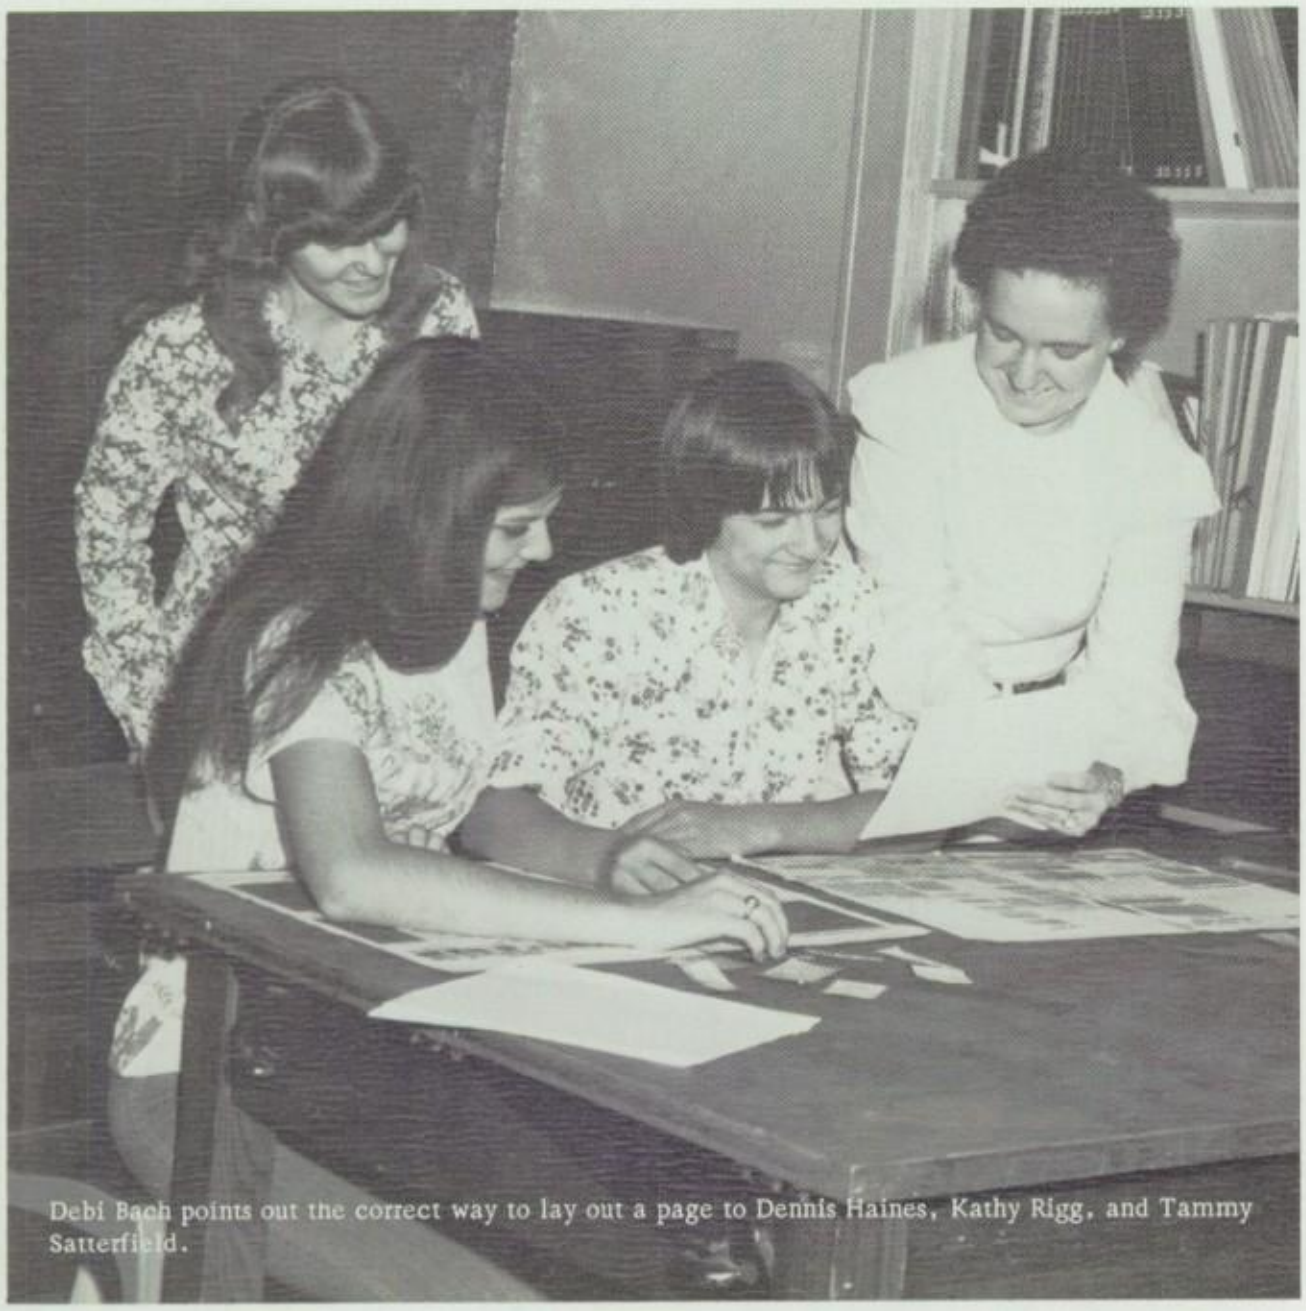
Mrs. B. Ameter points out a mistake to Tammy Paddick, Holly Hurtel, and Carol Weirich.



Manny Bryant, Tony Barker, and Mike Buchanan go over their finished product while photographer Mark Jones loads his camera.



Debi Bach points out the correct way to lay out a page to Dennis Haines, Kathy Rigg, and Tammy Satterfield.

Penni Spillman and Manny Bryant are amazed by a customer's request.

This year the Toma Talk operated with a new advisor, editor, and publisher. New to our school system but not to the field of Journalism was Mrs. Brenda Ameter. Debi Bach, a second year journalism student, served as editor-in-chief, and the Bridgeport Leader published the paper. The Toma Talk staff, which consisted of a total of twelve people sold ads and subscriptions which helped in the production of the newspaper.

Council Serves Students

1. Dave Hesher marvels at his ability to do magic during a lyceum.
2. The concession stand's appearance is improved thanks to the Student Council.
3. Anne McCarty watches Mr. Joe Sechrest type the agenda for a Student Council meeting.
4. David Jarvis is a willing lyceum participant.
5. Pammy and Bau Graves celebrate the Bicentennial in song for L.H.S. students.

Two hot dogs and two cokes coming up says Rick Pickering.

In order to advertise the Sound Project, members dress up like their favorite products.

Hopefully for no legal reason, Student Council visits the Court House.

Student Council was busy as usual with the Homecoming activities being the first project of the 1975-76 school year. The beginning of the year also brought such things as class elections and the painting of the football concession stand. The council also sponsored lyceums and a Colgate-Palmolive project which involved the collecting of labels from many Colgate-Palmolive products. The money earned was put toward a new sound system for L.H.S. Mr. Joe Sechrest served as sponsor of the L.H.S. Student Council.

Spanish Club Holds Fiesta

This year Spanish Club celebrated Spanish Night for the first time. The agenda included a Mexican Hat Dance and a slave auction. There were also several kinds of Spanish food on display for tasting. Activities planned for the year included several fund raising projects to sponsor their orphan child in Chile and a joint party with the Spanish Club at Red Hill High School.

1. Marsha Calvert contemplates her new image of a Mexican bandito.
2. "Kiss me, I speak Spanish," proclaim Spanish Club members.
3. Spanish Club members discuss the success of their first Spanish Club Night.

FNA Provides Health Care

The Future Nurses of America is one of the healthiest clubs at L.H.S. The club, which is made up of boys and girls enrolled in the Nursing Services classes at the Vocational Center, takes field trips to such places as the Warren G. Murray Children's Home in Centralia, helps with the Bloodmobile, the county health clinics, serves as teacher aids at the various grade schools, trains at the county hospital and works at Methodist Home as part of their nursing classes. Sponsors of the organization are Mrs. Jeneva Kirkwood, R.N. and Mrs. Wanda Hedde, R.N.

1. Amy Laakman kisses a former patient goodbye.
2. The afternoon Nursing Services class relaxes while they wait for the bus ride back to the high school.
3. Cecil seems to have tickled the funny bone of the morning Nursing Services class.

Speech Clubs Practice Locution

1. The third hour speech club relaxes in natural surroundings.
2. Janet Tykal stops Larry Leighty from walking out of practice.
3. Andy Supinie tries to restrain Jonathan Schnautz's enthusiasm for Janet Bowman.
4. With motherly love, Anne McCarty tries to calm Andy Gillespie.
5. The sixth hour Speech Club escapes the heat in the auditorium by relaxing in the windows.
6. Rick Pickering and Jonathan Schnautz report in to Dad, Louie Stephens.
7. Janet Bowman is disgusted by the Christmas hassle.
8. The family, Susan Thompson, Rick Pickering, Amy Laakman, and Laura Loeb gather around Louie Stephens for a conference.

The Speech Clubs, sponsored by Mr. K. Hardway, held bake sales in the auditorium over lunch hours and presented four Christmas plays to raise money toward a video-tape machine.

The 3rd hour speech club, President Bob Taylor, Vice-President Andy Gillespie, Secretary Jan Jones, and Treasurer Janet Tykal, put on "Herbie's Christmas Present" and "There Arose Such A Clatter." "Pop Reads The Christmas Carol" and "All Is Calm" were performed by the 6th hour Speech Club whose President is Rick Pickering, Vice-President Carla Salesman, Secretary Amy Laakman, and Treasurer Laura Loeb.

The Speech Clubs studied Parliamentary Procedure in class and wrote constitutions for their separate clubs. In April the two clubs went to Champaign to see the play "Country Wife" and also to visit the radio and television stations.

NHS Honors Education

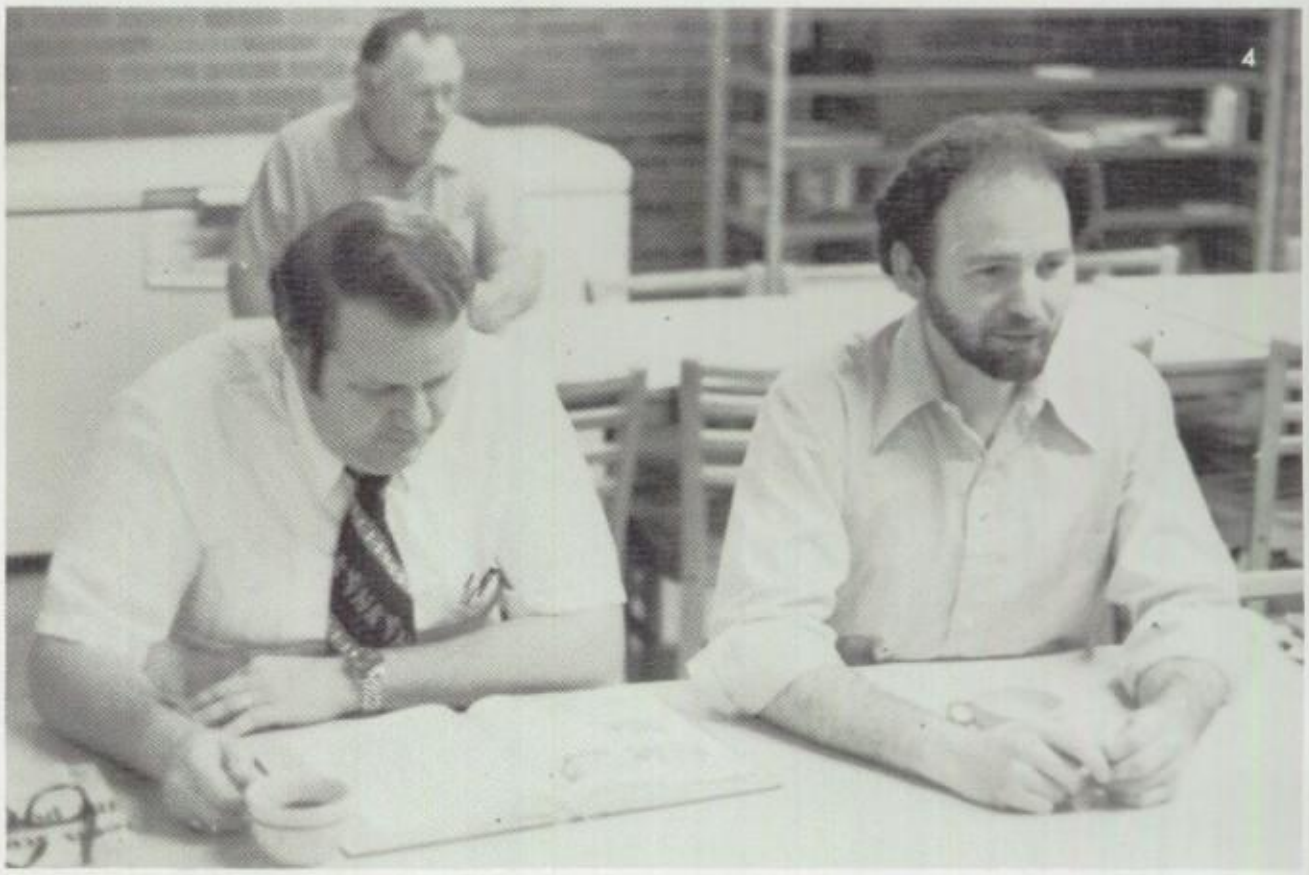
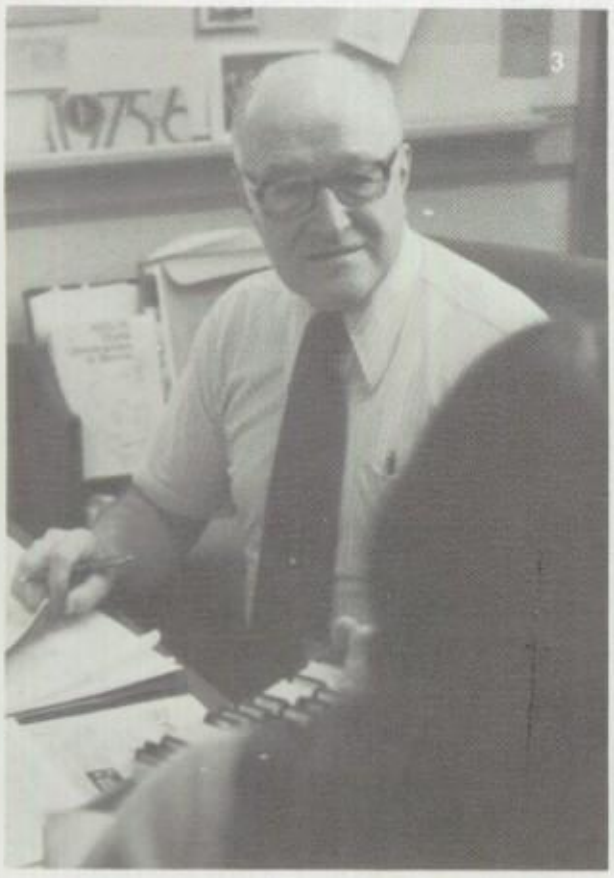
1. Frantically, National Honor Society members try to locate the cameraman.
2. N.H.S. member and Student Council president, John White, introduces a lyceum.
3. Mr. L. Edmond Wagoner shows he has time to counsel as well as be N.H.S. sponsor.
4. Mr. Ron Walker and Mr. Joe Sechrest enjoy N.H.S. coffee.





The National Honor Society enjoyed several projects during the 1975-76 school year. Their first big project was a trip to Eastern Illinois University at Charleston, Illinois. The members of the group were able to take a tour of the campus and also had the opportunity to meet instructors and visit classes. Other activities of the year included a morning coffee hour for the teachers during National Education Week and the establishing of a scholarship fund. Mr. L. Edmond Wagoner guidance counselor at L.H.S., served as the N.H.S. sponsor.

Lettermen and Key Clubs Offer Aid

The Key Club is basically a service club. They assist the local Kiwanis in civic activities such as the annual radio auction. Another annual project is the selling of Easter Lilies.

The Lettermen's Club, on the other hand, is made up of those athletes of the school who have won recognition in the various sports of Lawrenceville High School. The objectives of the Lettermen's Club are to improve the sports program and life of athletes at L.H.S.

1. Key Club, although small, is still on top of things.
2. Lettermen's Club shows mixed emotions about having their picture taken.

Science Clubs Enjoy Traveling

Chemistry Club looks for industrial pollution in the Embarrass River.

The Chemistry and Physics Clubs, sponsored by Mr. J. Sechrest, consisted of members of the Chemistry and Physics classes. All activities planned and carried out were arranged by the members of the individual clubs.

Members of the Physics Club test the theory of gravity.

Dishong Sponsors New Club

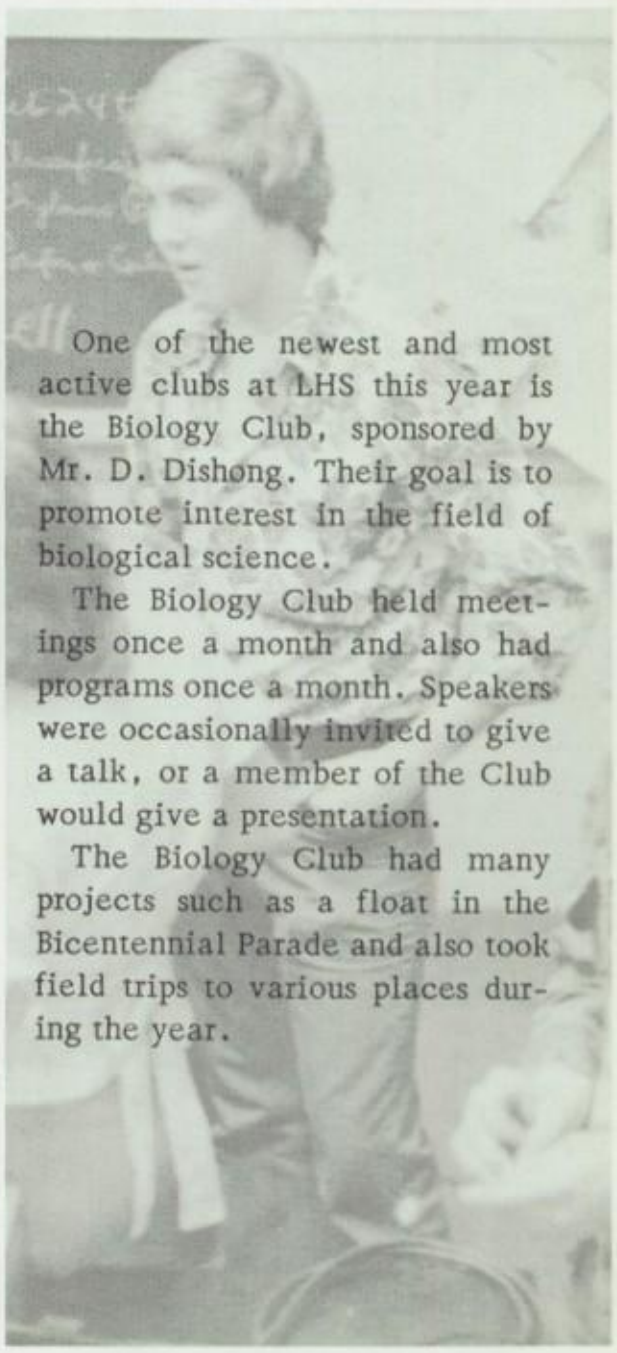
1. The Biology Club takes a scientific approach to picture taking.
2. In order to feed her fellow club members, Felicia Stevenson pops popcorn.
3. Mr. J. Clark makes the acquaintance of Lucille.



One of the newest and most active clubs at LHS this year is the Biology Club, sponsored by Mr. D. Dishong. Their goal is to promote interest in the field of biological science.

The Biology Club held meetings once a month and also had programs once a month. Speakers were occasionally invited to give a talk, or a member of the Club would give a presentation.

The Biology Club had many projects such as a float in the Bicentennial Parade and also took field trips to various places during the year.

GAA Enjoys Exercise

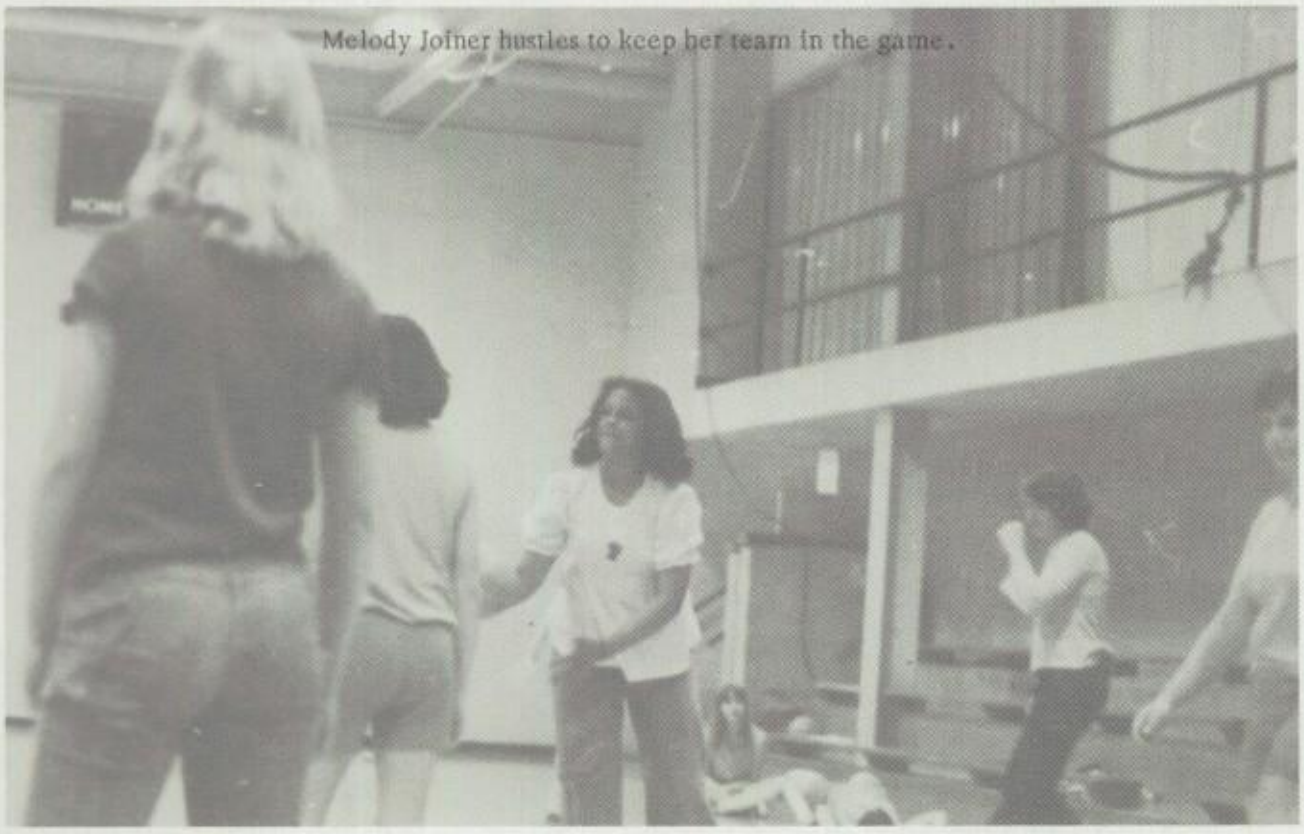
The GAA displays a talent for lining up in formation.



Melody Joiner hustles to keep her team in the game.

A visiting Cathy Case helps out Bobbi Fouts' team.

The GAA is headed by President Cindy Martin, Vice-President Julie Childress, Secretary-Treasurer Linda Seaman, and sponsored by Mrs. J. Campbell. Tina Anderson, as Point Chairperson, kept an attendance record, giving a point for each time a member came to a meeting. When a member had 75 points, she received an award.

The Club met every Monday after school. They divided up into teams and played games previously determined by the Sport Chairpersons who were Bobbi Fouts and Melody Joiner. On April 30th the GAA had a slumber party in the girls gym, and in May they met at the Township Park for a weiner roast.

FHA Sponsors New Dance

1. The FHA picnic table gathers by Heidbreder's for their annual picture.
2. Mrs. B. Longnecker is spellbound by Cindy Hill's suggestions at an FHA meeting.
3. Jan Jones demonstrates skills which won her the Betty Crocker award.

The FHA is represented by the Motto "Toward New Horizons." The club is sponsored by Mrs. B. Longnecker and headed by Berdena Moody, President; Janice Foss, Vice-President; Suzanne Thacker, Secretary; and Kathy Roberts, Treasurer.

The FHA sponsored the schools first Sweetheart Dance on February 14. To raise money for the dance, they had bake sales and a chili supper in January. The club also helped to raise money for the Heart Fund.

A party was held every month, starting with a weiner roast in September and ending with a Mother-Daughter Banquet in May. In the fall and again in the spring, the FHA girls attended a Rally at Altamont for area FHA Clubs.

Club Tours Golden Rule

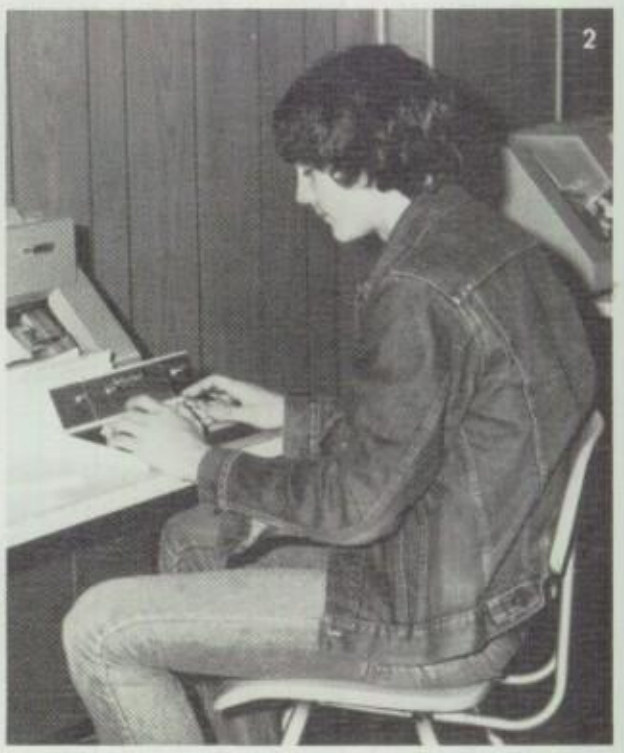
1. The 6th and 7th hour class wait for the bell to ring.
2. Matt Gaines demonstrates the correct key punch method.
3. Mr. D. Myers helps Laura Loeb with a problem.
4. Hard at work, the 3rd and 4th hour class studies computer programs.



The Computer Programming class introduces students to computers. They learn to combine logical thinking with business situations and to write and design commands for the computers.

The class is taught by Mr. D. Myers. In December, the classes went to the Golden Rule Building for a tour and to see their computers.

CVE Provides Job Training

Fourth hour CVE huddles up to keep warm.

Ed Trumley happily stacks candy at IGA.

The 8th hour CVE girls seem unaware there are window peekers outside.

Students who worked in the morning met for CVE class 8th hour under the direction of Mr. B. Schaffer, and those working in the afternoon met 4th hour under Mr. W. Wesley. The class, which is required for students working during school, studied such things as insurance, tax forms, and general economics.

In the fall the CVE students sold items from Tom Wat kits. The money raised was used for the CVE banquet in April which was for the students and their employers. The money also sponsored the trip the classes took to King's Island in May.

Club Enjoys Roman Life

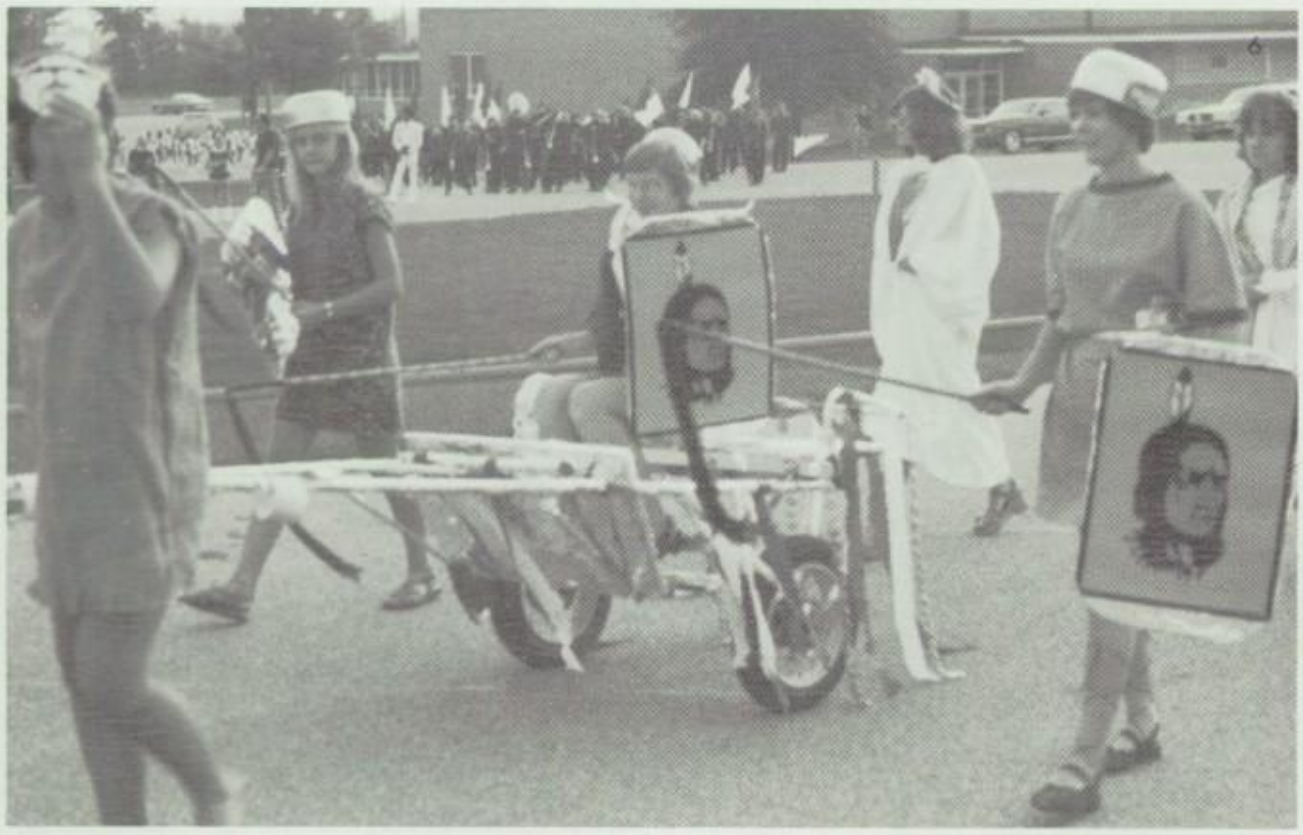
1. Latin students observe Greek architecture.
2. Classics Club slaves protest their captivity.
3. High candy salesmen, Tracy Simms and Lisa Bridgett, examine their price list.
4. Sally Cook and Lou Moore enjoy the attention of Dennis Haines, the most expensive slave in the Classics Club auction.
5. Classics Club Council members Lou Moore, Julie Childress, Steve Raggo, Sally Cook, Tammy Padgent, Judy Legout, Gary Tucker, and Scott Kirkwood relax before continuing planning Roman night.
6. Classics Club members support the Indians in Roman style.
7. Gary Tucker and Alan Raggo rest before continuing the field trip to the Indianapolis Museum of Art.
8. Mrs. B. Mitchell and Marty Hunt encourage other Classics Club members to join in the caroling.



All Latin students are automatically members of the Classics Club, which Mrs. B. Mitchell sponsors. The purpose of the club is to stimulate student appetency for intellectual growth, and their motto is "Facta non Verba," which means "Deeds, not Words."

The Latin Council is composed of students elected from the Latin I and II classes. Co-consuls for '75-'76 were Julie Childress and Gary Tucker. Other council members were Lou Moore, Sally Cook, Alan Raggo, Scott Kirkwood, Bob McGaughey, Judy Legout, and Tammy Padgett.

The members of the club pay no dues but raise funds by selling candy, holding bake sales, and auctioning slaves. The Classics Club participated in both the Homecoming and Bicentennial Parades, and enjoyed field trips to Chicago, Champaign, Indianapolis, and Evansville.

During the winter quarter the club held a Saturnalia party, and in April celebrated Rome's birthday with a simulated evening, on Mt. Olympus, during Roman Night. At the club's end-of-year party, Lou Moore, Julie Childress, and Sally Cook were cited for two years excellence in Latin.

FFA Honors Agronomy

1. FFA members enjoy a field trip to the north side of the track.
2. Herbie Waters and Danny Bohlen wait patiently for the FFA tractor parade to start.
3. Ed Teater and Alan Weger try to convince themselves that the animal in the crate is really a sheep.

1. Junior Davisson shows off a lamb during FFA week.
2. Rick Stork and Bertha Nading relax by a cow.
3. "I wish I had a footstool like Mr. Scherer's," Larry Whipkey thinks.
4. "Of course I can speed shift a combine," Craig Spidel assures Mark Klien.

FFA members elected Jim Kensler as their president and he led the club in varied activities including an auction for which townspeople donated items. Each club member also donated three hours of time to help build bleachers at the 4-H Fairgrounds. Late in April the FFA held its annual parent-member banquet. Mr. Bob Scherer served as sponsor and other officers included Jerry Davis, Vice-President; Pat Jordon, Secretary; Terry Vowels, Treasurer; Matt Bach, Reporter; Darren Green, Sentinel.

LHS musicians ignore the "Keep off the Grass!" signs on the campus lawn.

The Concert Band, which met every day first hour, was directed by Mr. R. Bullis. The band marched at five home football games and provided music for nine home basketball games.

The Band participated in the winter and spring concerts, and marched in the Homecoming, Bicentennial, and Memorial Day parades. They toured the area jr. high schools, and also South Knox High School, who returned the visit with a special concert for the Music Department. The concert band also helped support the music fund by selling Mark-7 cleaner.

Band members ignore those clowns behind them and concentrate on music.

Dennis Haines solos, Greg Dycus critically listens.

Mountain man Russ Bullis reflects on his band's performance.

While some Jazz Band members perform, others patiently wait.

The LHS Marching Indians proudly parade down State Street during the Bicentennial Parade.

The Jazz Band, directed by Mr. R. Bullis, was an extra-curricular activity, which met after school two nights a week from January through May.

The Jazz Band participated in the winter and spring concerts, and entered competition at the Eastern Jazz Festival along with 38 other bands.

Indians Enjoy Support

This year the cheerleader number expanded to 20. There were three separate squads, J.V., Varsity, and Wrestling. The girls all worked together to support the LHS Athletic department. Also adding to this support was Chief Tawanka and the Booster Club. Mrs. Arlene Purdy again served as Cheerleader sponsor.

1. The J.V. and Varsity Cheerleaders proudly display their new uniforms.
2. The Varsity Cheerleaders support the team during the Homecoming parade.
3. "Even a war dance couldn't help us now," Chief Tawanka, Billy Fahr, thinks hopelessly.
4. Confident of a win, the LHS Cheerleaders lead fans in a victory cheer.
5. Lawrenceville boosters rise to their feet to radiate confidence in their team.
6. After a wrestling meet, the Wrestling Cheerleaders try out a new routine.

Varsity Singers Win Awards

Varsity Singers consisted of 17 LHS students. The group performed for several community organizations including the Rotary Club, the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Kiwanis. The group also traveled to Mt. Carmel to participate in the Solo and Ensemble Contest. They returned with seven first division awards and only two second divisions. On Music in Our Schools Day, they entertained LHS with popular songs and choreography. Mrs. Betsy Bullis directed the group and Diane Hawkins accompanied on the piano.

2. On Music in Our Schools Day, Varsity Singers entertain LHS students and faculty.
3. Mrs. Betsy Bullis keeps the beat going.

Choir Applies Basics Learned

Choir, taught by Mrs. B. Bullis, met every day 6th hour. During first semester, students learned the basics of music such as notes and dynamics. Second semester they learned and practiced a variety of songs.

In November, the Choir sang for the Music Boosters and also participated in the Christmas and Spring Concerts. Some members took part in the school play, "The Sound Of Music." To help support the music fund, they sold Mark-7 cleaner.

1. Choir rests on the Elks steps before continuing to a concert.
2. Choir members try to keep their attention on everything at once.
3. Mrs. B. Bullis illustrates a point during practice for the Spring Concert.

Arrowettes Entertain Crowds

1. Arrowettes relax in the warm fall sunshine.
2. Amy Laakman tires to psych herself off the floor for her next performance.
3. Drill Team Captain Rosemary Nelson smiles at her troop's attempt to be coordinated.

The Arrowettes audition each year for a position on the squad. When each girl tries out she is reminded that the drill team requires both time and complete devotion. This year's Arrowettes certainly gave fantastic performances as a result of their devotion. They performed a halftime show for every home football and basketball game, traveled with the band to march in parades, and raised money for Drill Team Camp by having bake sales and paper drives. Aiding the Arrowettes in accomplishing their goals are Mrs. Marsha Fry, Mrs. Sheri Kizer, band director Russel Bullis, and Captain Rosemary Nelson.

Pep Band Boosts Team Spirit

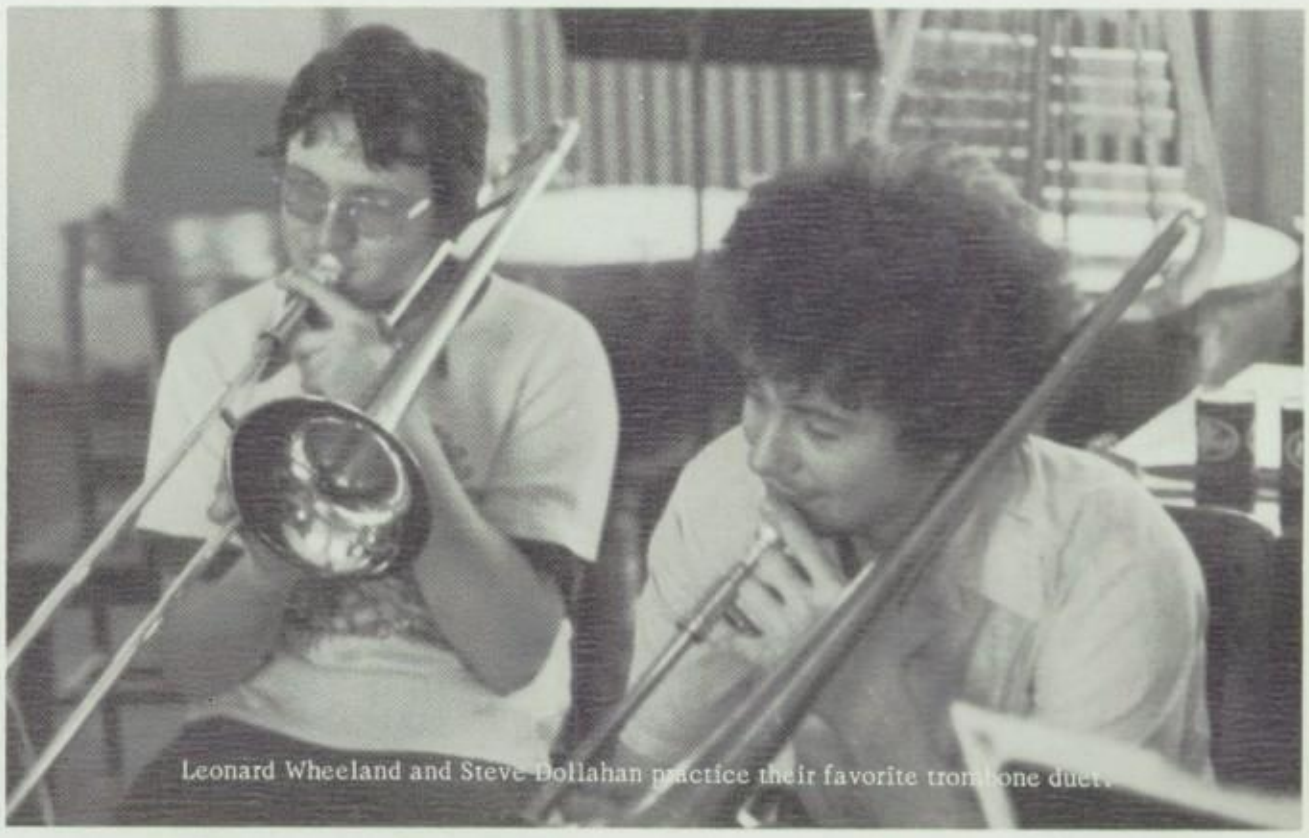
The Pep Band tests the railing at the old jail.

Tim Hennessy prepared to dedicate himself to his work.



Leonard Wheeland and Steve Dollahan practice their favorite trombone duet.

The Pep Band, which is a branch of the Marching Band, is directed by Mr. R. Bullis. The Pep Band played at pep sessions and also switched off with the Marching Band to play at basketball games. Along with the Bridgeport Pep Band, they provided entertainment for the crowds at the Fall Festival.

Competition, Competition, Competition,

Bettering last year's record the Indians placed second in the NEC, finishing 7 and 2 for the year.

Year end stats showed Von Lambert, among others, earning awards. Lambert, a four-year letterman, led the season in carries, total points for the L'ville area, punt and kick-off returns, and total yards gained.

NEC nominees included: Lambert, Argo, Colvin, McDonald, Lamb, Gher, and Harrington, who also was voted to the Southern Illinois Conference team by the Evansville Courier. Golden Helmet awards went to Harrington, Argo, McDonald, Hesher, Lambert, Gher, Calvin, Stephens, and Lamb.

Underclassmen reserves aided the varsity in achieving their record by adding morale as well as depth.

Indians Finish 7 and 2

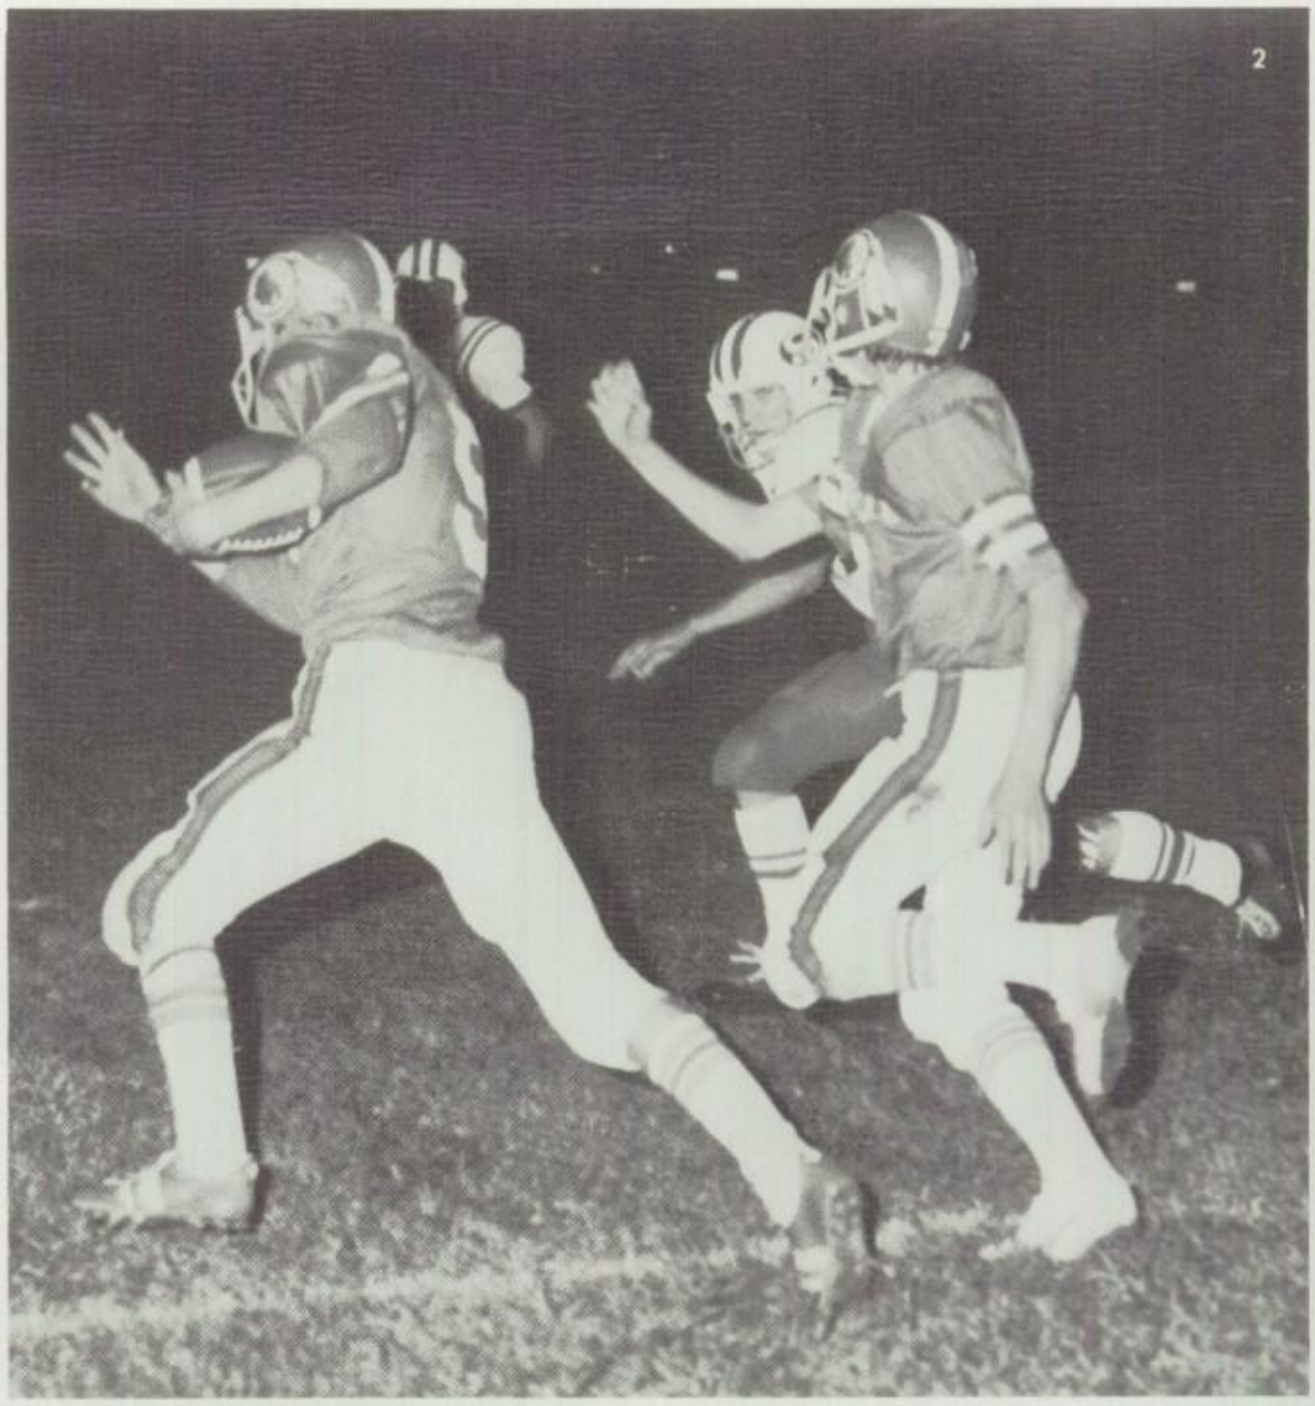
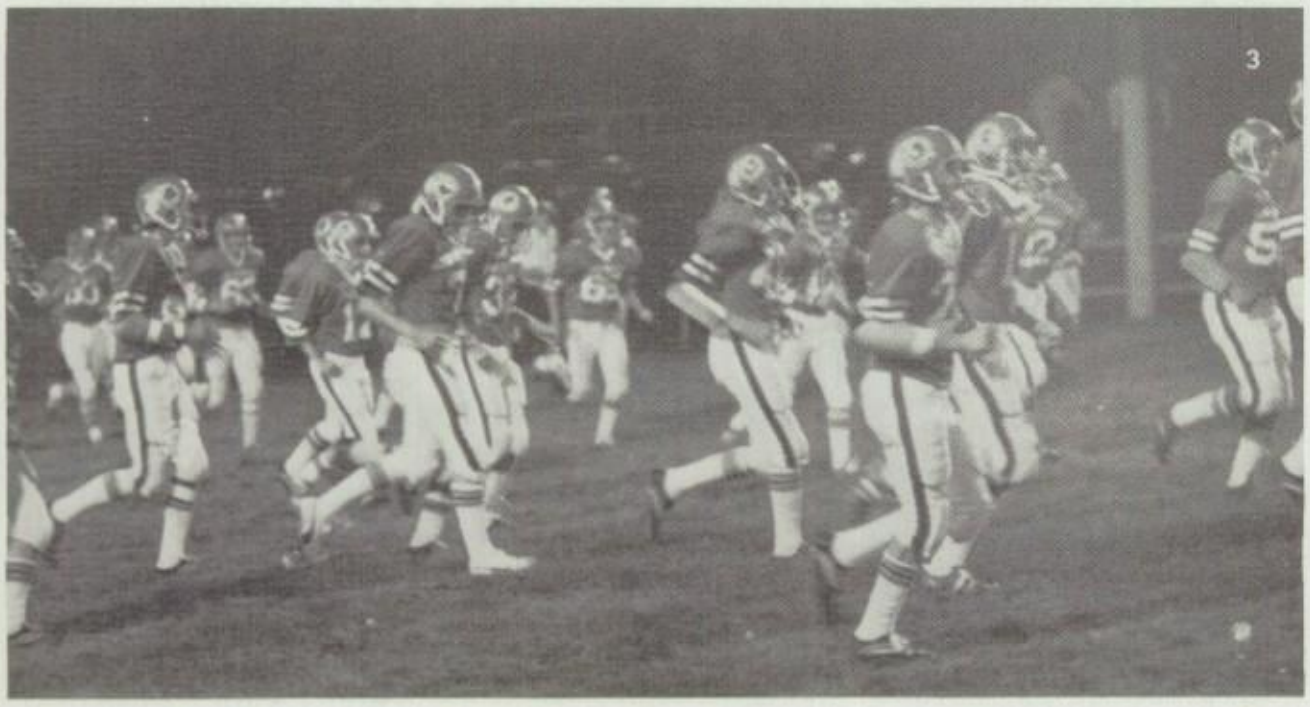
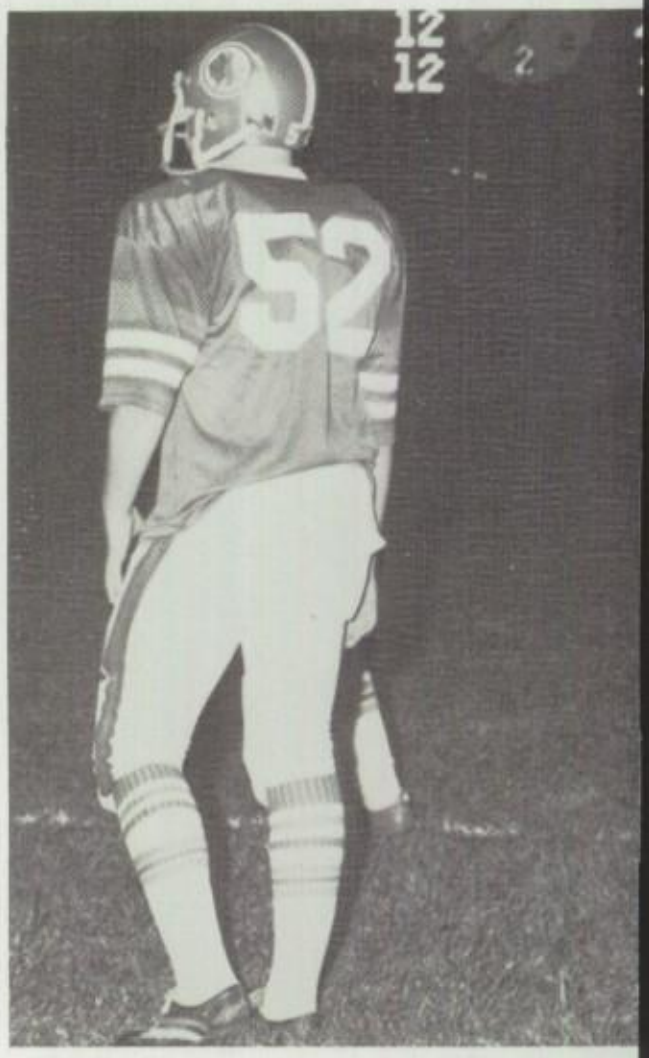
1. Ron Gher carries against Salem.
2. Mike Gosnell and Jim Turner await their turn.
3. Coach Reedy shouts encouragement.







1. Senior co-captain Rick McDonald stands at ease.
2. Danny Lamb finds it easy to carry with help from the team.
3. Jogging to action, Indians prepare for victory.
4. Coach Reedy nervously awaits the next important play.

1. Injured Chuck Argo is helped off the field by Dr. Bob Kirkwood, Vic Underwood and Coach C. Reedy.
2. Team members wait their turn.

Ro[illegible]er struggles for the tackle.

Wrestlers Take Tournament

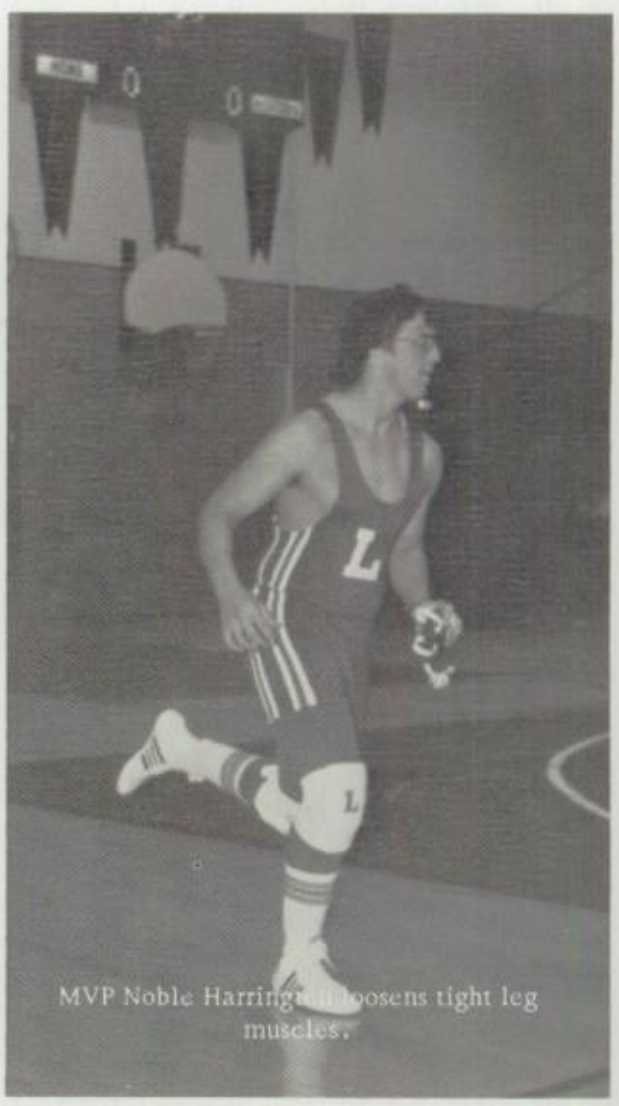
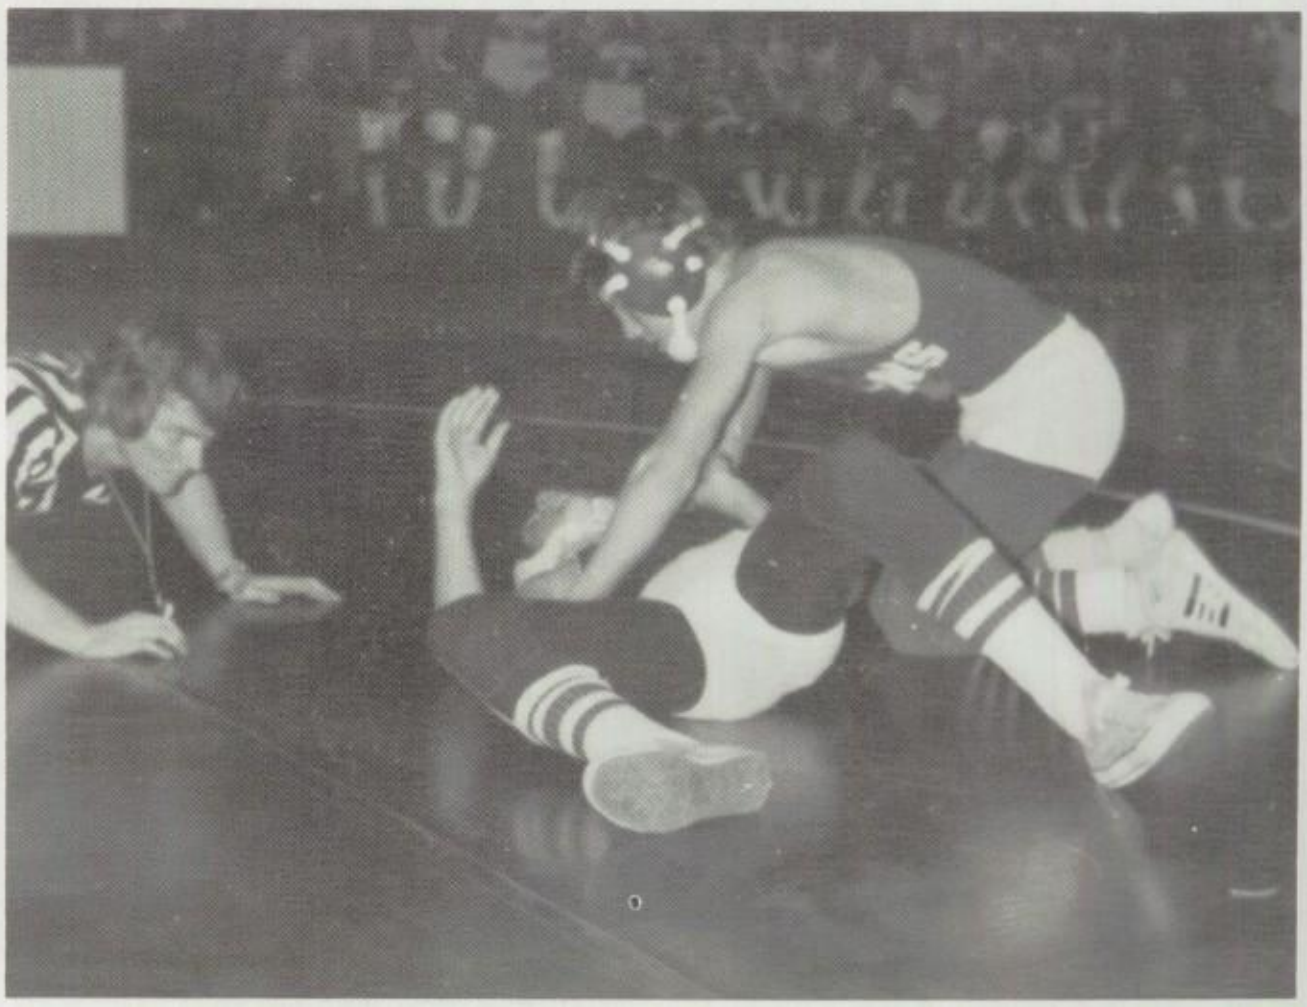
Lawrenceville's wrestling Indians warm up before a match.



MVP Noble Harrington loosens tight leg muscles.

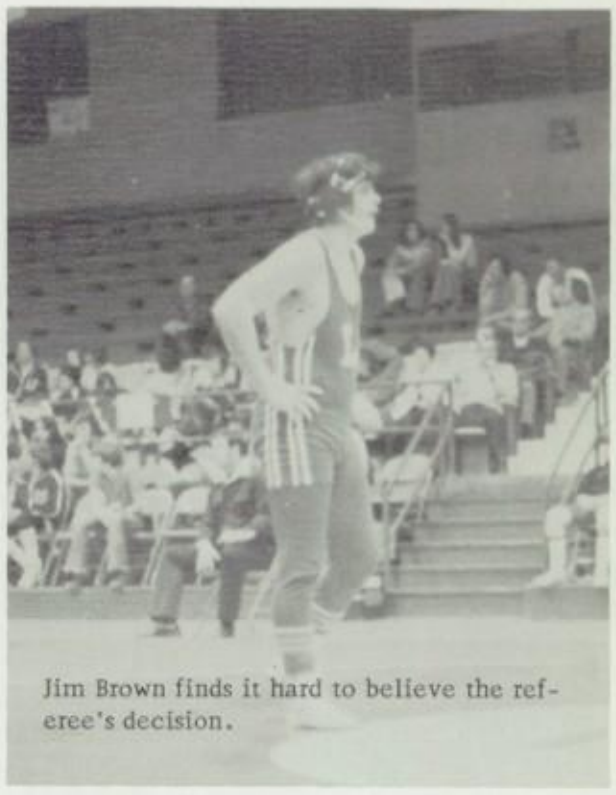
"It was a fine way to end a coaching career," commented retiring head coach Don Meyers. The Indians won the first Lawrence County meet with four individual winners.

The wrestlers competed in 3 NEC tournaments. LHS placed second against Mt. Carmel followed by Red Hill, Carmi, Fairfield, and Flora. Centralia downed Lawrenceville, by a margin of 18. An injury to Von Lambert during the match possibly cost LHS the match. Paralyzed during a Mattoon tourney, Lawrenceville placed fourth, with 70 points. Under the supervision of Coach Meyers, the grapplers seized their second District Championship, pinning the host Vandalia 121½-111½. MVP was Noble Harrington, who pinned three at the sectional and advanced to state.

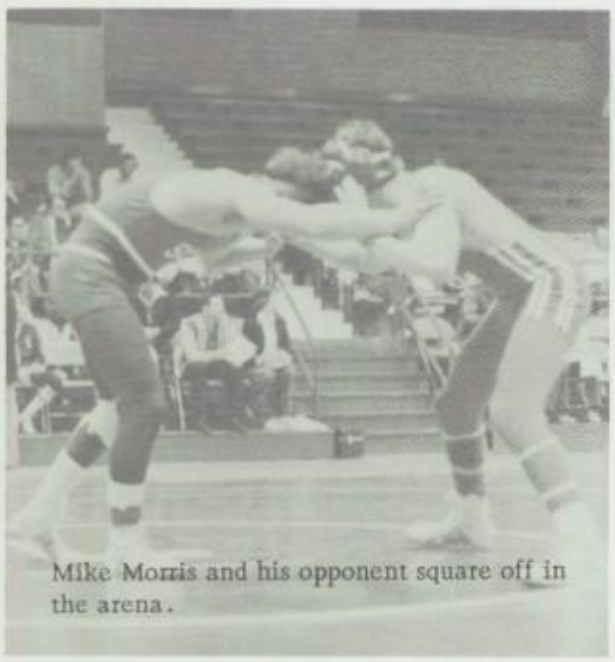


Gary Hamilton makes it look easy, as he chalks up another victory.

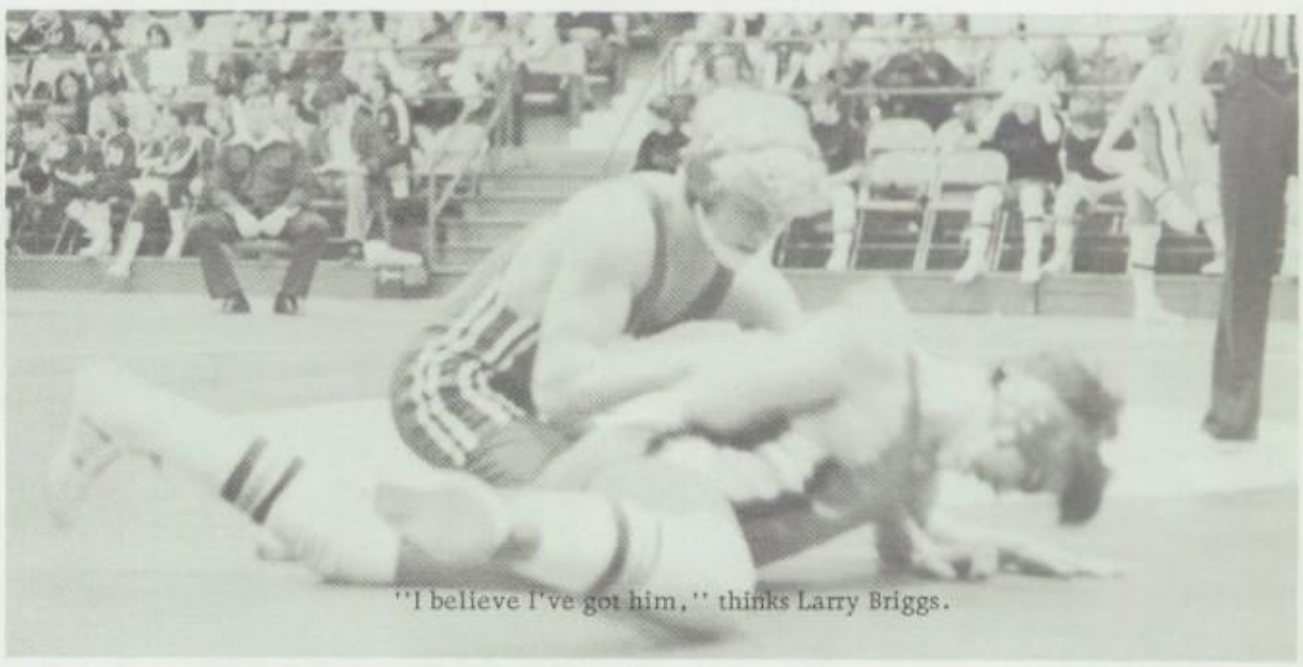
Asst. coach Jim Dunn congratulates grappler Larry Briggs.



Jim Brown finds it hard to believe the referee's decision.

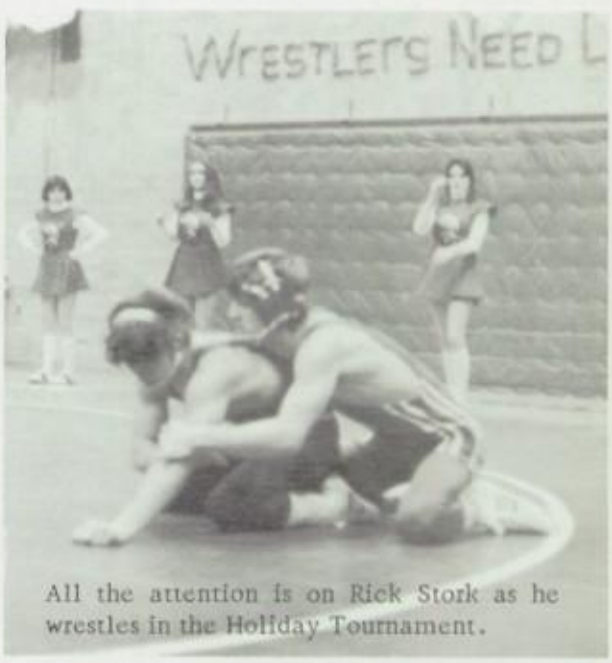


Mike Morris and his opponent square off in the arena.



"I believe I've got him," thinks Larry Briggs.

Freshman athletes learn the true meaning of a grueling Lawrenceville practice.



All the attention is on Rick Stork as he wrestles in the Holiday Tournament.

Tribe Takes Third

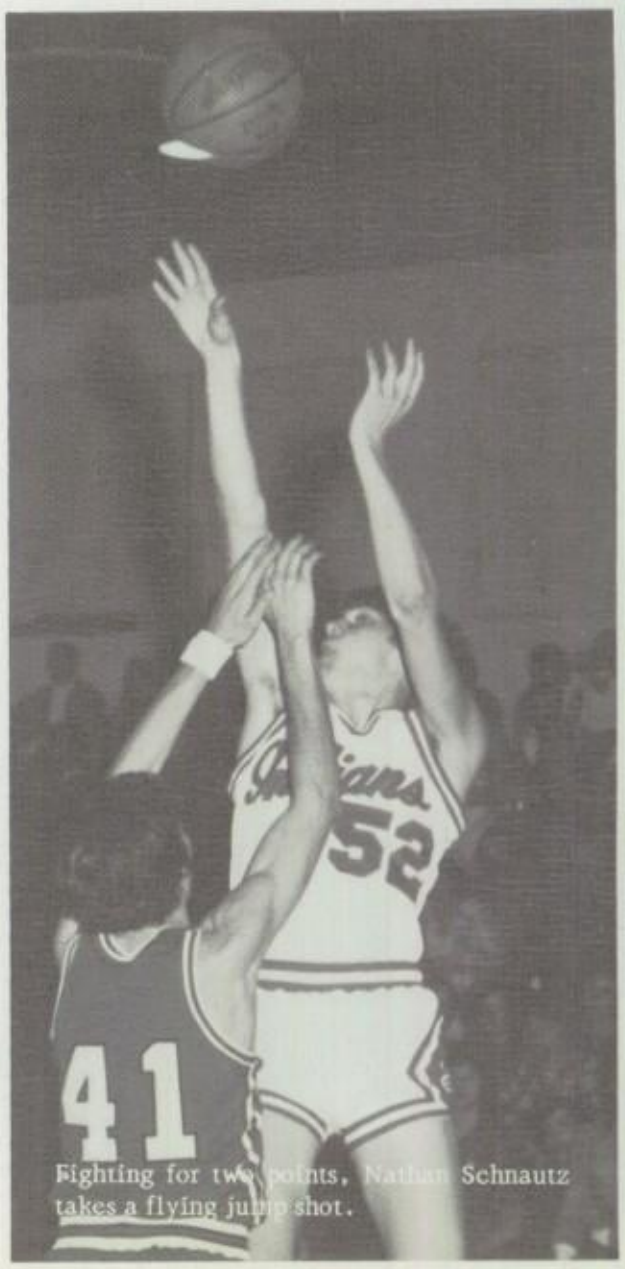
Head coach Ron Felling points out mistakes to his players.

First year starter, Dave Wagner plays like one of the family.

"Gold is great, but bronze sure ain't bad," exclaimed senior Rick Pickering, summing up the season. The 1975-76 varsity Indians fought their way up the NEC totempole to Champaign this year to finish third in the state. Led by senior Jay Shidler, the team finished 29-2 for the total season. Defeated by Rova in the semifinals at the championships, the boys proudly brought home a third place trophy to add to the collection.

First year starter Nate Schnautz showed outstanding ability under the basket. Junior Dave Wagner and Ron Gher also aided the varsity. Congratulations go to other graduating veterans Dave Hesher, Rick Pickering, Brent Pace, Louis Stephens, head coach Ron Felling and asst. coaches Jeff Tricket and Clarence Reedy for another winning season.

Intent on the game, Brent Pace dribbles to the gym.



Fighting for two points, Nathan Schnautz takes a flying jump shot.

The freshman Indians finished the 1975-1976 seasons with a 10-6 record. The team defeated every NEC team except Olney including the Carmi Bulldogs, the NEC frosh champions, on their home court. Playing under coach Dennis Patton, Willie McKinney was the team's leading scorer with an average of 20 points a game.

Playing equally as well, the Sophomores, coached by Clarence Reedy, turned in a perfect record, finishing with a 6-0 regular season. The only loss showed to the Sophomores was at the hands of Carmi during a post season NEC Sophomore tourney. Averaging 12.5 points a game, J. B. Kavanaugh was the team's leading scorer.

Jump shots add to the score and so does Jim Pickering.

J.V. coach Jeff Tricket models his new "fro."

Disregarding the opposition, Eric Irvin shoots "two."

Girls Continue Winning Ways

Chalk up another point for Sandy Martin.

Rhonda Carrie demonstrates body English in coaxing the ball through the hoop.

"I think I can; I think I can," says Cindy Martin reassuring herself.

The experience gained in 1975 was once again put to use in '76 by the girls' basketball team. The foremost change of the '76 season was the addition of a jayvee girls' team. The year's varsity record was 9-3, followed by a 5-7 seasonal record for the J.V. Leading scorer was Sandy Martin with an average of 20.5 points a game, and a total of 246 for the year, playing both for varsity and J.V.

Intramurals Involve Nearly 90

FRONT ROW, Left to Right: John Walsh, Captain Chuck Argo, Mark Colvin, Eddie Teater. BACK ROW, Left to Right: Craig Spidel, Glynn Stevens, Don Kolarick.

The Lawrenceville High School sport involving the most boys is intramurals. Approximately 90 boys participated during the year. Along with sponsors Jim Dunn and John Fish, many of the students donated their time to officiate and help operate the clocks. The winning team, picked by Chuck Argo, finished with a 6-4 record, defeating Neil Irvin's team for the championship. Two teams which tied for the best overall season record were Scott Smith's and Alan Weger's. Both teams held an 8-0 record.

1. Louie Stephens whistles while he works as an intramurals ref.
2. "Hi, ma," waves Manny Bryant going for two.

Girls Drive to District

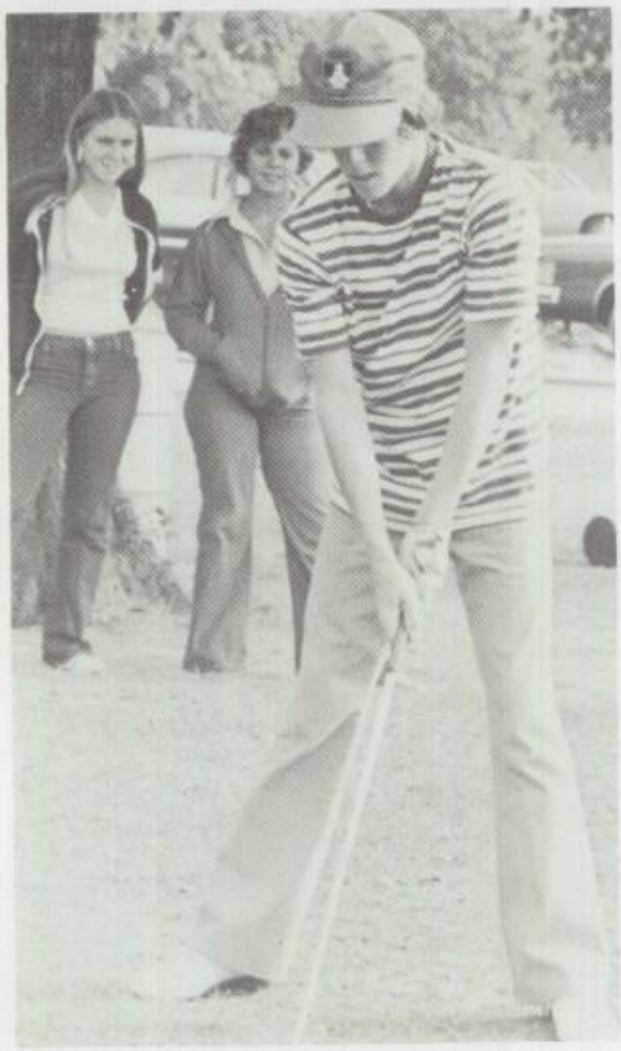
This was the first year for girls golf at L.H.S. Coached by Terry Henry. Linda Divis, Retta Newman, Laura Whitmer, and Pam Owens (pictured above with student coach Bob Senatre) played only one match, the District, and stole the first place trophy. The girls advanced to state play in class AA and tied for nineteenth place. Laura Whitmer led the girls with a score of 105 the first round and 103 the second round of state final play.



1. Onlookers Linda Divis and Pam Owens study Gregg Dycus' form.
2. Lee Moore proves timing and concentration are essential.

Golfers Keep Strokin'

J. B. Kavanaugh was high scorer this year with an average of 39.9, followed closely by Greg Dycus with a 41.9 average. The team ended the year with a 5-6 total record, but with the many underclassmen, including freshmen, who played for this year's team, Coach T. Henry had high hopes for future golf success.

Bob McGaugheys' nine iron bites the dirt as fellow golfers look on.

Steve Kirkwood eyes the ball as he tees off.

Baseball Attracts More Players

BACK ROW, Left to Right: Head coach Jeff Tricket, Willie McKinney, Mike Gosnell, Scott Smith, Ron Gher, Arron Murphy, Louis Stephens, Steve Shelton, David Shaw, Glenn Stephens, Brian Cannon, Gregg Hobbs, asst. coach Tim Wilson. KNEELING, Left to Right: Darren Green, Scott Lackey, Curtis Smith, Lee Moore, Tim Morris, Ron Volkman, Steve Kirkwood, J. C. Stone, Gary Tucker, Dave Logan.

1. Virgil Potts gives the photographer a "Wide World of Sports" look.
2. Curtis Smith and Keith Wright discuss rainy day blues.

Dennis Lewis gather equipment.

The first day of practice this year saw three times the number of last year's players trying to look good for new head coach Jeff Tricket. This year's team compiled a record of 6-7 while the J.V. finished 2-1. Four J.V. players, Willi McKinney, Gary Tucker, Mike Gosnell and Gary Tucker gained experience playing for the varsity. Golden glove recipients were Scott Smith for outfield play and Steve Kirkwood for infield play.

Cindermen Suffer From Runs

1. Jim Higgs racks up points in the high hurdles.
2. "Wow, that's his best time all day," says Coach Dunn to Louis Stephens.
3. "Take it and run," advises Van Maxwell to Ed Racop.

ABOVE: "Courage, just one more lap," is inspiring to Brett Harder as he nears the end of the mile run.

Dave Wagner strains to hit the twenty foot mark in the long jump.

Rick Stork and Bertha Nading look on as Von Lambert demonstrates shoe tying to Mike Crutcher.

Trackmen strike poses of Greek gods while warming up before a meet.

Several of this year's cindermen turned in outstanding performances.

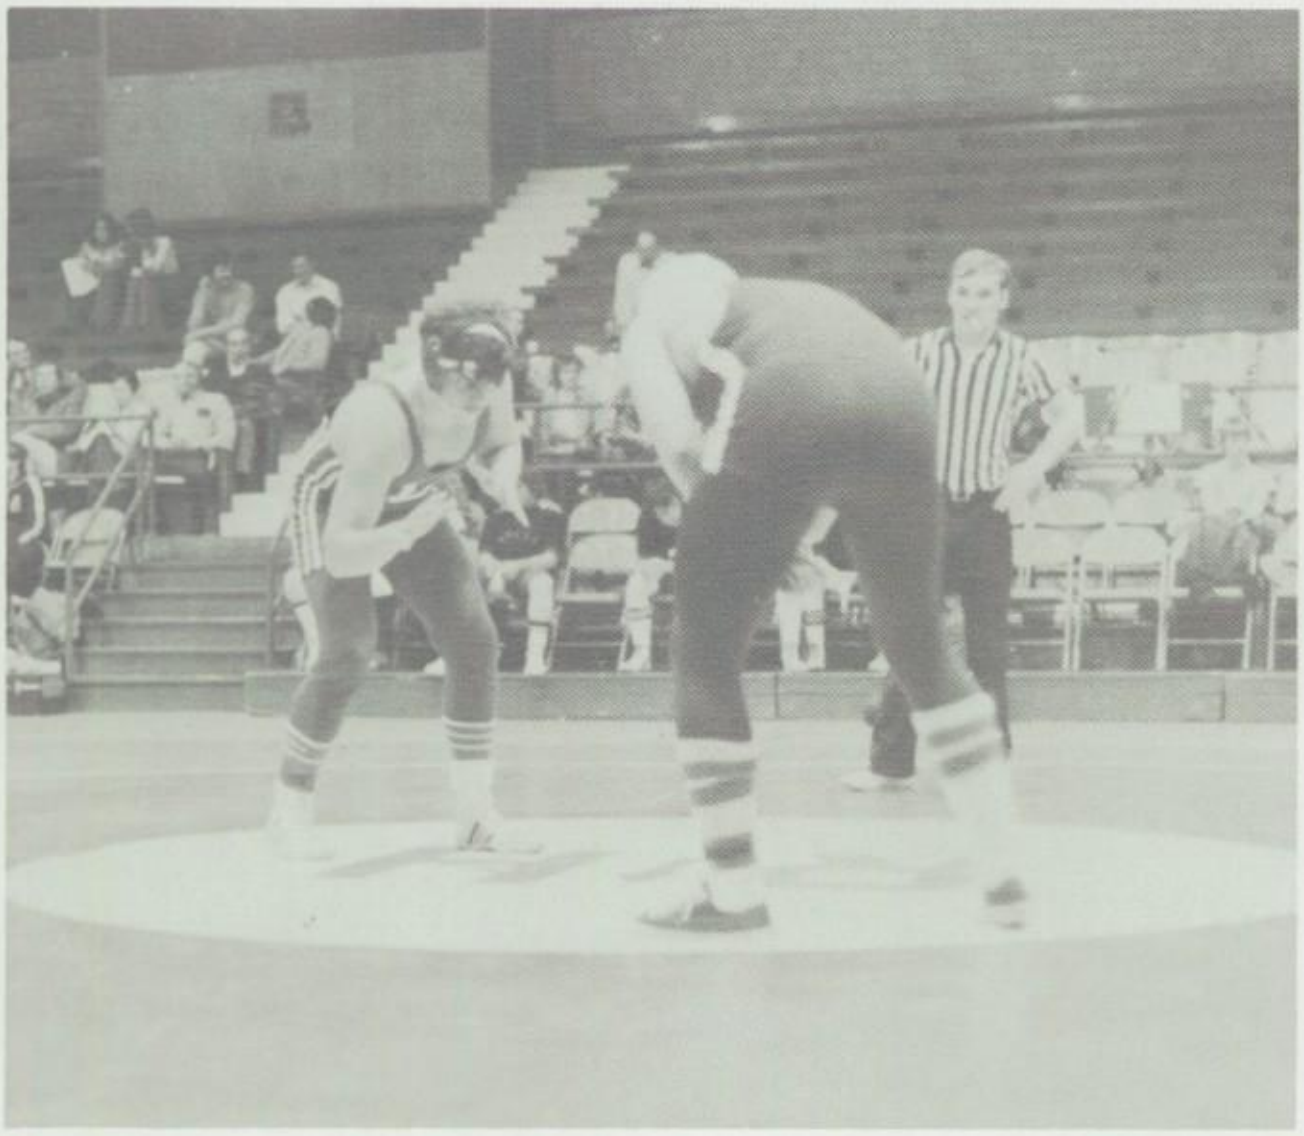
This year's record breakers were Steve Zehner who broke the record for the 330 low hurdles and was also nominated M.V.P. Sophomore. Jim Turner, who crossed the finish line of the 100 yard dash with a record time; and the Varsity mile relay record team of Harder, Zehner, Louis and Starling.

Most valuable senior was Gary Duckworth who advanced to state for the Indians. Brett Harder was voted most improved over last year's showing. The years' records were 2-1, for triangular meets, and 7-2 for duals.

It seems all the pain and agony suffered from common practice and hard work paid off in the long run.

1. All ears open for another Ron Felling pep talk.
2. Von Lambert banks a turn in a run for another touchdown.
3. "Easy does it," thinks Doug Brown as he shoots for par.

ABOVE: Another Indian cinderman goes over the top.



1. Rhonda Carrie practices the skill of dribbling.
2. "Now what did she say that play was?" Susan Thacker asks herself.
3. Jim Brown worries his opponent with an evil stare.

Because we published a yearbook without assigning any one person to the position of editor-in-chief, the problem of summing up the 1975-76 school year, a task usually considered the major task of the editor-in-chief, fell on the sponsor of the LAWRENCEAN.

Patriotism was the dominant theme in Lawrence County and the entire country as America celebrated its two hundredth birthday and the dozen candidates for President praised the American way of life. The LAWRENCEAN staff joined in the celebration by declaring eighth hour a holiday until deadline pressure forced them to re-evaluate their sections.

The staff was a flexible one since we lost members to marriage, jobs, and other schools during the year. Todd LaBounty joined us at mid-year as photographer, for example. The year book staff was also unique, fun, entertaining, and only slightly literate as they struggled with spelling, grammar, copy blocks, and all other aspects of yearbook publication.

LHS athletes continued to bring honor to the school by winning in all sports in which they competed and capturing a third place state trophy to highlight the athletic year.

LHS musicians brought home awards wherever they performed and won the admiration of everyone in the district by presenting an outstanding SOUND OF MUSIC.

LHS students dazzled us all by scoring so well on ACT, PSAT, NEDT, ETC. tests and winning scholarships to universities throughout the state.

The 1975-76 school year, like all others, will be remembered by many, forgotten by some, and completely overlooked by a few. Hopefully this edition of the LAWRENCEAN can remind its readers of life at Lawrenceville High School during the Bicentennial year.

To a nice
Girl who I
Have known for a long time
Good luck in the years

I'm not this - a great day just
"What we need rain"
Yes it's been great
Knowing you. We had some great times together
wish we had some classes together this year. Good luck in the future and may God be with you
Your friend

Andy,
PS I write, I'm in a very appropriate situation! (Riding the bus!) It's been great gabbing with you on the way to and from school!
Good Luck,
Friends
Forever!
